The musical score is written for piano and consists of five systems of music. The tempo is 'Allegro pesante.' The first system starts with a forte (f) dynamic. The second system also starts with a forte (f) dynamic. The third system ends with a decrescendo (dim.) marking. The fourth system starts with a piano (p) dynamic and includes several pedal (Ped.) markings, some with asterisks (*). The fifth system also starts with a piano (p) dynamic and includes a crescendo (cres.) marking. The score is numbered 19,001 at the bottom left.

The first system consists of a vocal line on a single staff and a piano accompaniment on two staves. The vocal line begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The lyrics are written below the vocal staff. The piano accompaniment features a steady eighth-note pattern in the right hand and a more complex, syncopated pattern in the left hand.

Moderato alla marcia.

The second system is a piano accompaniment for a march, marked "Moderato alla marcia." It consists of two staves. The right hand features a series of triplets and chords, while the left hand provides a simple harmonic accompaniment. The tempo and mood are indicated by the marking.

The third system continues the piano accompaniment. It features more complex rhythmic patterns, including sixteenth notes and triplets, in the right hand. The left hand remains simple. A "Ped." (pedal) marking is present at the end of the system, followed by an asterisk.

The fourth system continues the piano accompaniment with a mix of eighth and sixteenth notes in the right hand. The left hand continues with a simple harmonic accompaniment.

The fifth system is the final system on the page, featuring piano accompaniment. It includes a triplet in the right hand. The left hand continues with a simple harmonic accompaniment.

First system of the piano introduction. The right hand features a series of triplet chords, while the left hand plays a steady eighth-note accompaniment. A forte (f) dynamic marking is present.

Second system of the piano introduction. The right hand continues with triplet chords and includes a trill (tr) and a triplet. The left hand features a half note (H) and a fortissimo (fp) dynamic marking. A dim. (diminuendo) marking is also present.

First system of the vocal entry and piano accompaniment. The vocal line (Cedric) enters with the lyrics "Wel - come, Sir Knights!". The piano accompaniment consists of a simple harmonic line. A Ped. (pedal) marking and an asterisk (*) are at the bottom.

Second system of the vocal entry and piano accompaniment. The vocal line continues with the lyrics "I pray ye par-don me For lack of Nor - man". The piano accompaniment features triplet figures. A cres. (crescendo) marking is present.

Third system of the vocal entry and piano accompaniment. The vocal line continues with the lyrics "cour - te - sy. Sit ye be - side me here, And fall to". The piano accompaniment features triplet figures. A forte (f) dynamic marking and an L.H. (left hand) marking are present.

A musical score for a song. The top staff is a vocal line in G major (one sharp) and 2/4 time. The lyrics are: "Beats not too wild for think - ing on my dear!". The bottom two staves are a piano accompaniment. The right hand plays a continuous eighth-note melody, and the left hand plays a bass line with some chords. The score ends with a double bar line and a fermata over the final note.
